BEEF CATTLE EDUCATION CENTER

At Penn State University

The Fall Herd Management School is designed for both the new and the experienced herd manager. The program will allow you to more effectively manage the herd and the winter feeding program to reduce costs while optimizing your resources for future production. The maximum class size will be 25 people, so register early.

The cost of the program is $50 per person and includes lunch, breaks, and handout materials. The deadline for registration is October 23, 2009.
