

PA 4-H HORSE PROGRAM SAFETY AWARDS

The purpose of the Pennsylvania 4-H Horse Safety Awards program is to promote safety by recognizing the efforts of youth and adults in creating and delivering equine safety programs. The award is open to all youth and adults involved in the Pennsylvania 4-H Horse Program. The awards will be presented at the 2009 Pennsylvania State 4-H Horse Show. Award recipients will be recognized at the show, receive a plaque and possibly additional awards.

Programs may include, but not limited to:

Horsemanship Skills Program

Youth Safety

Horse Handling Safety

Emergency Preparedness

Farm/Stable Safety

Health/First Aid

School and Recreation Programs

Application deadline: September 15, 2009

Activities must be conducted from January 2007 to September 1, 2009.

Some past winning programs include:

Barn Fire Safety, Facility Safety, Protective Headgear, Accident Prevention, Safety Demonstrations, Horsemanship Skills, and All About Horses for Parents.

Be creative in programming and don't forget to submit your entry. Applications will be available from your county Penn State Extension office, or on the 4-H Horse Program website at: www.das.psu.edu - Go to 4-H programs, horses and awards.
